

This pledge card represents a promise between you and God. No one but God will see it. Please read the following instructions before filling it out:

1. Your pledge is made before God and therefore should be the result of prayer, thanksgiving, and assurance. Prior to filling out the card, please devote yourself to a season of prayer as you seek God's direction in what you should give.
2. Fill out both sections of the card and then detach them.
3. Place the section you signed in an unmarked envelope and seal it. Bring it to church with you on the designated Sunday. We will offer these to God in a service of dedication. No one will see your pledge. It is between you and God.
4. The portion of the card that gives only the amount pledged will be collected in a box on the same Sunday. Therefore, bring it to church on the designated Sunday as well. Please do not sign this portion of the card.
